All orchestra students need a good chair (wooden chair, dining chair, etc.) and a place to practice at home.

A FOLDING MUSIC STAND is highly recommended for all students to use at home.

Beginning Orchestra students will use the following book:

Sound Innovations for String Orchestra—Book 1.

Students will be provided with one copy by Blevins Middle School. Students will keep these books at the end of the school year. Students are responsible for purchasing a new book if they lose the provided copy.

Concert Orchestra students will use the following book:

Sound Innovations for String Orchestra —Book 2.

Students will be provided with one copy by Blevins Middle School. Students will keep these books at the end of the school year. Students are responsible for purchasing a new book if they lose the provided copy.

Symphonic Orchestra students will use the following book:

Sound Innovations Creative Warm-ups for Intermediate Orchestra
Sound Development for Intermediate/Advanced String Orchestra

Students will be loaned a copy of these books from a class set. These books must be returned at the end of the school year. Students are responsible for replacing any books lost or damaged beyond repair.

Instruments are required for every class meeting.

Students are expected to have their instruments at school each class day. When students do not have their instruments, they cannot participate fully in the learning activities. Students who consistently forget their instrument may be assigned detention to make up for the lost instruction time. Conferences between the student, parents/guardians, Mr. Floyd, and Administrators may also be required.
